

Information about Citizens Advice East Herts

Who runs it?

It is a local charity and it is part of the national organisation Citizens Advice also known as CAB

What do they do?

They give free advice to people living in East Herts

The advice is confidential. This means they won't tell anyone else unless you say it is OK

What advice do they give?

They can give advice about lots of things, for example:

1. The law and your rights

2. Money, for example:

- Benefits
- Debt

3. Relationships

4. Housing

5. Health

6. Education

If you're not sure what kind of advice you need they can help you find the best place to go

? Who will I speak to?

A volunteer adviser who has been trained to give you the help you need

? How do I get advice?

1. By going to a drop-in session at one of the offices in:

- Bishop's Stortford
- Hertford
- Buntingford
- Ware
- Sawbridgeworth

For opening hours go to the website:

www.ehcas.org.uk

2. By getting advice on line:

www.citizensadvice.org.uk

3. By calling the telephone Advice line on 03444 111 444